[For the Roundabout.]

Expiation.

I wandered through a garden,
In the lovely month of June,
When the fragrance of the roses,
And the singing birds in tune,
Made the world a fair Elysian
Of sweetness and perfume.
And my soul knelt down adoring,
All its beauty and its bloom.
There I saw a rare exotic,
Leaning o'er the garden wall—
'Twas a rose of silvery radiance,
Growing high above them all.
So splendid and exquisite,
With the morning's pearly cheek,
I fancied 'twas a spirit

That could, dove-like, smile and speak.
My soul with love was smitten
For its radiant Sharon rose.
I grant this was presumption
But then, love no barrier knows.
I began to woo this beauty
As it overleaned me, fair,
To blossom on my bosom
And to live forever there.

And so, 'tho' it was higher,
And was grander, sweeter far,
Than all roses that grew nigher
And that clung about the bar—
I planned and toiled so bravely,
Thence to win it from its place,
And to touch and clasp it holy
And to breathe and kiss its grace—
As if my pure devotion
And my prayer at last was blest,
It waved down from its summit
And soft rested on my breast.

Like a halo. Of the rapture—
To hold it as my own—
And to love it with caresses,
Thence my Sharon rose alone—
But its spirit soon departed,
And my rose in death undone—
Ahl! too splendid for my keeping
Was the rose that I had won.
Had I sinned in my ambition
For this grandest gift of God?
For my life in my atonement,
'Neath the chastening of His rod.

SAMEL.

Geo. H. Stahlin.

This gentleman is not only a progressive citizen but a philanthropist. He came to our city a few years ago comparatively unknown, and engaged in the furniture business, and by his energy, his politeness, and his kind ways has made a host of friends.

Mr. Stahlin is one of those who looks to the interest of his fellowman, not alone for a selfish interest, but to aid humanity in a substantial way. He conceived the idea of furnishing to the citizens of this county and city and all visitors the beverage prepared by God himself, to nourish and invigorate his creatures and beautify his footstool. Seeing that on crowded days strangers frequently suffered for the want of water, as well as the poor, tired horses which were ridden here by countrymen, on county court days, as well as at other times, Mr. Stahlin, prepared and furnished, at his own expense, a fountain, and receptacle for water, in front of his establishment, where all might drink and be welcome without money and without price. Therefore no man or beast need come to our city and go away thirsty. This is a kind of a citizen who should be appreciated, and we hope that he may live long and prosper.

Pea Ridge.

Rev. H. M. Polsgrove is preaching every night this week at Choateville Church, with a very good attendance.

Miss Fannie Hearn, of Jetts, closed her school at Choateville, last Friday.

June 9th, and on Saturday gave her scholars a basket picnic on the premises of Mr. R. Tharp. A great many invited guests were also present, and it was one of the most enjoyable and select events of the season. Miss Hearn, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Mary, also by Mr. and Mrs. Tharp, did everything possible to make their guests enjoy themselves. Hammocks and swings in profusion and other games, with social chats, made the day one to be long remembered by those present.

Miss Emma Aubrey, of Frankfort, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Letta Huette, of Choateville, this week.

Mrs. Ernest Collins, of Frankfort, was the guest of Mrs. Taylor Collins this week.

Miss Annie Nichols, of Frankfort, is visiting on the Ridge this week.

Mrs. James Graves, of Shelby, was the guest of her parents this week.

Miss Mattie Collins, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Frankfort, has returned home.

Mr. Joe Hieatt, Mr. John Hieatt and several other young men, whose names we did not learn, assisted Mr. Frank Stoop and Mr. Sam Lacedfield in setting out tobacco one day this week.

We miss the letters from Lily of the Pike so much. Come back to us again, both in poetry and prose. We enjoy your items.

Misses Jessie, Ruby and Ruberta and Master Landon Chambers, of Lexington, are visiting at Mr. John Dennis'.

Sunday was truly Odd Fellows' day at this place. Being decoration day, all members assembled to decorate the graves of deceased Odd Fellows. After appropriate ceremonies at the lodge room, the procession formed in front of the hall, headed by the Gilpin drum corps of Frankfort, marched to the cemetery, where the ceremony was conducted by Dr. R. B. Ginn. Thence the crowd repaired to the church and Mr. W. B. Bridgeford, of Frankfort, Special District Deputy Grand Master for the lodge, delivered a beautiful and appropriate address upon the origin and principles of Odd Fellowship, which was much enjoyed by all present. This was followed by an able sermon from the Rev. J. W. Shaw, who preached his tenth anniversary discourse. Many thanks for the able assistance of those who took active part.

DYSPEPSIA CURED! AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

A Safe, Sure and Permanent Cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Catarrh of the Stomach, Flatulency, Palpitation, Fermentation, Heart Burn and Constipation.

Read the following reasons for using American Dyspepsia Tablets

All other remedies claiming to cure indigestion and dyspepsia contain PEPSIN in one of its forms, and as long as PEPSIN is supplied to a weak, or even healthy stomach in the shape of medicine, nature will cease to make it, and the DYSPEPSIA will not be able to do without his "DOSE," and of course never be cured of his trouble. A stomach that will promptly digest food must make its own PEPSIN and not rely upon medicine for this most important agent.

American Dyspepsia Tablets contain no PEPSIN nor other PEPIC agents, but are composed of four old and well-known vegetable remedies which, in combination, will soon effect a cure by restoring the stomach to its normal condition. We furnish no book on the "STOMACH and its DISEASES," no ALMANAC, no prize for the LARGEST number of wrappers, but will send a trial box to any address free of cost.

AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS are put up in 50c. packages, and are to be had at J. W. Gayle's and W. H. Averill's, or by addressing

Copies of this folder will be mailed free to any address by Wm. H. Taylor, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agent, 216 Fourth Avenue Louisville, Ky.

Insurance Companies Win.

The Court of Appeals, through Judge DuRelle, handed down an opinion, on Thursday, reversing the decision of the Franklin Circuit Court in the case of the Commonwealth v. Aetna Insurance Co., &c., in which heavy fines were assessed against all the companies represented in the Underwriters Board.

This is a victory for the business interests of the State, as opposed to politics. Business men cannot do business without insurance, and, if the decision of the lower court had stood, the insurance companies would have been compelled to withdraw from the State.

Who Hath Woe?

Man that is married to a woman during house-cleaning time is of few days and full of carpet tacks.

A cloud of dust obscures his vision and great gods of darkest gloom oppresseth his soul.

He riseth up betimes sniffeth the morning air with a heavy heart and an obstructed nose.

He snatcheth a raw pancake from the griddle and rusheth to his labors depressed in spirit and saturated with dyspepsia.

He returneth at noon and falletteth over a mop.

The dull sickening thud of the belarruped carpet is heard in the land.

The queen of his household crowneth herself with a dirty towel and a fierce look.

She remembereth an avenging angel. Her scepter is a broom, and carpet fuzz clingeth to the salvage of her nose.

Large quantities of real estate setteth among the dimples of her swan like neck.

The family dog howleth beneath the window like he who was of damned souls and Notre Dame soul in the house sleazeb.

She maketh her spouse eat dinner from the ironing board in the kitchen where it reweeth on two chairs.

Her eye gloweth with the fury of great enterprise.

He findeth a cake of soap beside his plate and a portion of the scalp of the scrubbing brush in his butter.

At night he returneth to his home with a timid, halting step. He feareth the worst.

The swish of the peach limb is heard as it poundeth a fifty dollar carpet into shreds.

He drinketh a little cold tea from a tin cup and preparereth for bed.

A live carpet tack buryeth its fangs in his foot.

He lyeth in agony "Hellinaminit" and bumpeth the plastering from the ceiling in a vain and futile endeavor to jump through the roof.

He lieth down on his couch and wetteth his pillow with his tears.

The foetid flavor of bedbug specific smelleth to heaven, and the aroma of a new-laid moth ball sifteth through the lid of the clothes chest.

Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath redness of eyes and stoppeth-up nose? He who monkeyeth with house-cleaning.

Who mashereth his thumb? Who polluteth his lips with blasphemy? Who imperilleth his immortal soul? He who laryeth at home to tack down carpets.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Grifton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and, thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottle free at J. W. Gayle's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Big Contract.

Messrs. Paris, Allen & Co., of New York City, have contracted with Mr. J. W. M. Field, the noted distiller, whose distillery is three miles above Owensboro, for his entire crop of whiskey to be manufactured for the next fifteen years. This distillery's whiskey has a fine reputation and has run every season for many years.

Opera of Robert Macaire.

The opera of "Robt. Macaire" was by special request, reproduced at the Opera House, on Wednesday night, before a large and delighted audience.

It is seldom, if ever, that amateur performances reach the excellence which this attained.

Every one who took part in it seemed to vie with the others as to how nicely they could fit in to their appropriate place. There was no unseemly jealousy, which so often mars such entertainments, and everything went off smoothly and well.

We are glad to say that a comfortable sum was added to that already obtained for the purpose for which the entertainment was given.

The management have been solicited to give the performance in Paris, and it is thought that it may be done.

Nicely Done.

Mrs. John E. Miles, assisted by some young ladies, arranged some 550 bouquets for the Flower Mission, to be distributed in the local penitentiary by this organization on Friday last.

Salvation Army Convention.

Capt. J. J. Nelson, in charge of the Salvation Army work in this city, is making necessary arrangements for the expected visit and convention of that organization, which will be held here on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28. All the meetings will be held in the Opera House.

This organization is doing a good work among the lowly and forlorn, and should be encouraged in every way.

Slight Blaze.

On Wednesday morning, about 11 o'clock, an alarm from box 35 called the fire boys to the buildings known as Scott's barracks, on Wilkinson street, where a blaze had sprung up. It was quickly extinguished, with but small loss.

An Old Egg.

Some nineteen years ago, as Mr. Mike Parker was building the abutment to the north end of the Benson bridge, a hen flew up and laid an egg, a hen flew up and laid an egg, just as the workmen were putting on the top stone. Mr. Parker concluded to cover it in with stone and cement. On Wednesday Mr. Parker was engaged in raising the abutment and took off some of the stone, when there he found the egg, just as he left it, except that the contents had been absorbed. The shell was slightly discolored, but otherwise perfect. The hen which laid the egg was the property of Guy Owens (colored) who lived in a house near the bridge.

Franklin County to the Front.

Mr. Warren Pulliam, of the Benson neighborhood, breaks the record of markets on crop average in the sale of his crop of tobacco at the Planters Warehouse this week. Not satisfied with this distinction, he breaks the season's record in any market on the sale of a single hoghead of very fine leaf. Record of Louisville market was $20.50, Cincinnati $21.50. Mr. Pulliam smashes them both and makes a new record at $23. His prices were $23, $16, $15, $11.25, $10.75 and $6.90. Average, from ground up, $13.81. Leaving off lowest grade, the average is $15.20. This was a superb crop, neatly matched and cleanly handled, and Mr. Pulliam deserves all the glory and no doubt enjoys this noted distinction—especially the handsome return for his pains and labor. We congratulate him heartily.

Annual Election.

The Board of Commissioners of the Institution for Feeble-minded Children held their annual election for officers on Wednesday last. The following were elected:

Matron—Miss Lizzie H. Hudson. Teachers—Misses Fannie Gray, Mary Watts Brown, Ruth Ely and Mary Brown Duval.

Misses Ely and Duval are new teachers, the others being re-elected. Two of the former teachers, Misses Sallie Chinn and Minnie Bell, failed of re-election. They were two of the best that have ever held the position and it is unfortunate for the Institution that circumstances arose by which they were retired.

Excursion to Natural Bridge.

Messrs. Thompson and Rogers will run the first excursion of the season from this city to Natural Bridge, in Estill county, to-morrow, June 18. This great natural curiosity is situated in one of the most picturesque regions of the State. Those going will have a cool and delightful trip, extending sixty miles beyond Lexington, on the Lexington & Eastern Railway.

The train will leave this city at 8:30 a. m. and will arrive at Natural Bridge 11 a. m. Returning it will leave Natural Bridge at 6 p. m., reaching home before bed time.

Tickets for round trip $1. For further particulars see Curt Thompson or Frank Rogers.

Parole Law Upheld.

The Court of Appeals rendered a decision on Tuesday declaring the "Parole Law" constitutional, but deciding at the same time that the Prison Commissioners cannot exercise the powers conferred, but that the Sinking Fund Commission, composed of the Governor, Auditor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Attorney General, alone can parole prisoners.

The case came up from the Franklin Circuit Court and styled George, etc. v. Lillard, Warden, wherein the Prison Commission undertook to parole John Dugan.

Whose Fault is it?

For several weeks the sidewalks, on both sides of Third street, between Shelby and Main, South Side, have been torn up and the dirt thrown in hills on one side and cut into ditches on the other until it is almost impossible to pass, without going out into the middle of the street, and then wading through dust or mud shoe top deep. The ladies of this neighborhood are complaining greatly of this, and they wish us to ask whose fault it is? There has not been a lick of work done there for more than two weeks. It is simply an outrage that should not be permitted.

Snow.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock on yesterday morning there was a distinct fall of snow from a very black cloud that passed over this city at that hour.

Have You Heard Of It?

You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact.

The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 17, 1899.

Bluffed.

The Clay county outlaws undertook to interfere with and ambush the troops on the way to Barboursville with the Baker prisoners. The Gatling gun was promptly brought to the front, when the scoundrels found they had business some where else in a hurry.

What Was It Jim Jewell Said?

The so-called primary held in Louisville on Monday was a splendid illustration of the truth of the aphorism given out about politics by the late lamented Judge Jewell. It was a hummer from Hummersville, from whichever side you look at it.

Declines.

Admiral George Dewey has declined to allow any one to purchase a house for him in Washington City or any other place, as some of his zealous friends had undertaken to do. He says that he does not need this help, duly appreciates the feeling which prompted the offer, but respectfully declines to accept it. He is as modest as he is brave.

Captured Spanish Cannon.

Gov. Bradley has been notified that Kentucky will be given two of the captured cannon. One of these will be given to this city, and the other has been promised to the city of Lexington. Just exactly where the gun will be placed has not yet been determined, but there is every probability that it will be placed in the State's lot at the cemetery.

Baptist General Association.

This body meets to-day in Mt. Sterling. According to the latest returns there are 188,000 white Baptists in the State, and 1,500 ministers. The ministers' meeting, which convenes in the same place with the General Association, met Thursday night, and will have concluded its business by the time the Association will be called to order. Rev. Dr. W. H. Felix, of Lexington, is the Moderator. Rev. M. B. Adams will represent the First Baptist Church of this city in both meetings.

Kentucky Chautauqua.

The Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Lexington again this year, beginning June 27 and ending July 7. As usual it will be held in the Auditorium at Woodland Park. Distinguished speakers and musicians will have places on the program. To those who have attended heretofore, it is not necessary to say anything as to the enjoyment and improvement which may be secured, but to those who have never been present, we would commend it as a rare opportunity for both pleasure and profit in every way. For further information write to Chas. Scott, Esq., manager.

The Whole Hog or None.

Our friend of the Lexington Herald has a "Georgetown and Scott county" section of his paper, edited by Mr. Lewis Patterson. Mr. Patterson seems to be a new man at the business, and accordingly copied an article from Saturday's ROUNDABOUT, just changing one line and a half to fit, and sent it out as a Georgetown item. The article we refer to was as to the scenes on our streets on county court day among the politicians of both parties. Friend, we think the article a pretty fair one, and that you ought to have given due credit by saying where it came from, and then stating that it fitted Scott county as well.

New Assignment.

Lieut. Hugh Rodman, U. S. Navy, who has been so long assigned to duty on the Raleigh (which vessel opened the fight at Manila, May 1, 1898), has been ordered to duty on board the Albatross, now at San Francisco, Cal. The Albatross has been detailed to carry an expedition, headed by Prof. Agassiz, of Harvard University, to study deep ocean animal life. It will traverse the larger part of the Southern Pacific Ocean, touching at the Society, Fiji, Friendly, Ellice, Marshall and Gilbert Islands.

Lieut. Rodman has been given a few days leave of absence, during which he will come home on a short visit, probably reaching here before this article is read by the public.

An Infamous Assassination.

Manchester, Clay county, was the scene of an infamous assassination on Saturday afternoon. It appears that the circuit court had granted a change of venue in the Baker boys' case, accused of the murder of Ex-Sheriff White. The court had just adjourned and Tom Baker, in charge of the officers and military, was standing in the front of his tent, when a shot was fired from the house of Sheriff White, just across the street from the courthouse, and Baker fell dead.

Whatever may have been Baker's crime, and however deserving of punishment, there can be no excuse offered to justify such an infamous assassination as this. Baker was in the hands of the law and unarmed. Even savages could do no worse a thing. It is a disgrace to Clay county, a shame upon the State, and should meet with the severest punishment of the law.

Dr. Green Declines.

It is with universal regret that the announcement has been made that Rev. Dr. J. P. Green, who had been elected as the successor of Rev. Dr. W. H. Whitsett, as President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, has declined to accept the position. Owing to strenuous opposition to his giving up the Presidency of William-Jewell College, in Missouri, he has been reluctantly compelled to adopt this course.

Dr. Green has no doubt acted from the purest and highest motives, as the position he has declined is one of the opportunities of a life time, and higher than the one he remains with.

We fear that it will be a hard matter to find a man so capable to meet the situation.

Last fall I sprained my hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50 cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends. —F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Reception to the Soldiers.

The citizens of Frankfort, headed by the Ladies Committee of the Y. M. C. A., held a reception for all the soldiers who enlisted in the army during the war with Spain, on Friday night last. Preparations had been made for a nice time and it was fully realized.

Some sixty odd of the boys (about all who were in the city) assembled in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., in Masonic Temple, in uniform, where, after appropriate exercises, including addresses and music, they were served with a delightful lunch.

Preparations had been made to lunch about four hundred people, and it was found that there was an abundance and to spare after that number had been served.

There was a large crowd of our best citizens present during the evening, although the rooms were not uncomfortably full, as they came and went until 11 o'clock.

The inclement night kept away some who would otherwise have been present.

The committee having the matter in charge desire to return their sincere thanks to the ladies who so efficiently attended to all matters coming under their care.

L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Louisville June 20th and morning trains of June 21st at one and one-third fare, account the State Democratic Convention.

Accidentally Omitted.

In publishing the list of teachers in the city schools, in last week's issue, we accidentally omitted the names of Misses Rebecca Johnson and Maude Whitehead. They merited and received a re-election along with the others. We were informed that the old corps were all re-elected, and took the report of the schools for last year to get the list from and overlooked the fact that these young ladies were elected last year, and, of course, had not served for that year. We trust the ladies know us too well to think that the omission was intentional.

Watson's Brave Conduct.

Rear Admiral Watson, who has been sent to Manila to succeed Admiral Dewey, was a passed midshipman on the Hartford in April, 1882, when Admiral Farragut ran by Forts Jackson and St. Philip, below New Orleans. As the Hartford passed Fort St. Philip a shower of grape from one of the big guns tore the foremast into matchwood and seriously disabled the sail power of the ship. It was necessary to take in so many sails and set others, but the locks had jammed and the Hartford was in danger of swinging around and running aground. The fire of grape shot was so hot that the command "Go aloft and clear blocks and tackle on main yard" was not obeyed with that promptness that follows an order given by the commander of a man-of-war. But the hesitation was momentary.

"Come on, you fellows!" yelled a young voice, and up the rattings to the disabled rigging went a midshipman, followed by the watch. Running out lightly to the end of the yard, and standing sixty feet from the deck, with the grape clipping rods and tearing great slivers of wood from mast and spar, young Watson gave the necessary orders as calmly as if he was at a practice drill. When every thing was taut and in working order, following the "jackies" down, Watson saluted the Admiral and reported: "All clear, sir." Grim old Farragut simply seized the boy in his arms, and how the crew cheered.

"Had we ever got around there the Confederate guns would have destroyed us in five minutes," said Fleet Captain Percival Drayton, of the West Gulf squadron, as he told the story to Captain, afterward Rear Admiral Bryson. "Young Watson's ready appreciation of the danger and prompt action saved the Hartford, in my opinion, and Farragut thought so, too."

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Livestockman, Burgettstown, Washington, Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Does Your Head Ache?

Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Bolls or pimples? These are sure signs of poisoning.

From what poisons? From poisons that are always found in constipated bowels.

If the contents of the bowels are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, these poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease.

There is a common sense cure.

AYER'S PILLS

They daily insure an easy and natural movement of the bowels.
You will find that the use of with the pills will hasten recovery. It cleanses the blood from all impurities and is a great tonic to the nerves.

[For the Roundabout.] In Memoriam.

(Mrs. J. P. HANLEY, DIED JUNE 2, 1898.)

God's angel with a radiant face,
Above a couch of suffering bent to look
And there his likeness seemed to trace.

As in the waters of a brook.

"List!" She hear's the angel's voice
Whispering, "come, oh, come with me,
Happy together let us enter the Savior's fold,

This earth unworthy is of thee."
Gently the weary head drops lower,
She has harkened to the angel's call

And the sable pall of death
Has settled over all.

Softly, gentle hands have laid her
Among the lilies white and tall,
And round her bier, they, weeping, gather;

Does she feel their tear drops fall?
"O, my darling, words I murmured
Of my love so true and fond,
Yet you lay there calmly dreaming,
Dreaming of that vast Beyond?"

Through your slumber so calm and deep
Summer roses round you lay,
And you look so fair and saintly,
Need I wonder that Death bid you sleep.

Seemed I heard an echo dimly
As they bore you from my side,
Telling me of heaven's golden portals opening

When I have stemmed life's rolling tide.

I know not why this desolate heart pain,
I know not the home to which you go,

Nor this dread to tread my daily path
again,
I know naught—but this I believe,
"He doeth all things well."

Judgment Affirmed.

The judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court in the case of the L. & N. Railroad against Miss Tina McEwan was affirmed by the Court of Appeals on Tuesday. It will be remembered that Miss McEwan, who lives in this city, was a passenger on an excursion train of the L. & N. from Louisville, and was shot in the face by a drunken negro, who was in a row with some one else. She brought suit against the railroad and was awarded $18,000 damages upon the first trial, which the Court of Appeals reversed as excessive. Upon the second trial, in the lower court, she was awarded $12,000. This is the judgment which has just been affirmed. The case has been in court a long time. It was the occasion of the passage of the separate coach law.

DEATHS.

MARKSBURY—At her home in Shelby county, on Friday last, Mrs. Nannie Marksby, aged about 67 years, after a long illness.

Mrs. Marksby was the mother of Mr. J. W. Marksby, the well known newspaper correspondent and lawyer of this city. She was known and beloved here, where she had often visited her son. The sympathy of many friends is extended to the sorrowing ones.

Almost a Revolt.

At dinner time on Wednesday several prisoners confined in the county jail got into a row and were trying to cut each other's throats with table knives, when Jailer Holton, seizing a poker in one hand and a gun in the other, ran up stairs and ordered the men to stop the row. In order to do so, however, he was forced to threaten to shoot one of the crowd. Thinking he had the row stopped, he slipped his gun in the holster, and took the poker in both hands to keep the crowd at bay.

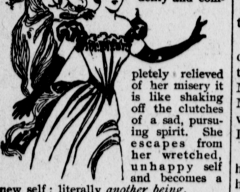

Just then a negro named Lee Clark slipped around and took the pistol out of the holster, without being observed, and ran down the steps to the lower room, hoping to escape, as the door was not locked.

When Clark reached the door he was about to rush out, when Mr. Geo. Branner (who had been attracted by the noise) met him and ordered him back. The negro at tempted to push by, pistol in hand, when Branner caught him and hit him over the head with an old lock, which happened to be lying convenient, until the fellow yelled for mercy.

Several other gentlemen had come

Escaping From Himself.

When a weak, pain-racked woman is suddenly and completely relieved of her misery it is like shaking off the clutches of a sad, pursuing spirit. She escapes from her wretched, unhappy self and becomes a new self; literally another being.

"My wife is up and walks about a mile every pleasant day. She feels like another person," writes H. Todd Huguley, Esq., of Mount Jackson, Marion Co., Ind., in a letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. "When I first saw your book referring to the cure of consumption I thought I would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription, as the doctors had given up and so I thought I could do no harm if it did no good."

"When I try to describe this cure I fail to do so in words. We shall never forget to thank God for giving us this means of relief. I know if my wife had not taken Dr. Pierce's medicine she would now have been in her grave. You can ask any one who is afflicted thus to write to me for more particulars."

This only serves to show that what ordinary physicians of any local and limited practice will often fail to accomplish, may become entirely possible to a thoroughly scientific and radical treatment, based upon a life-long and world-wide experience with the severest and most obstinate forms of so-called incurable diseases. Do not despair. Write to Dr. Pierce. He will send you the most authoritative advice in a plain sealed envelope free of charge. His splendid thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent paper-bound for 21 one-cent stamps to pay the bare cost of mailing, or in heavy, handsome cloth binding, for 71 stamps. A whole medical library in one 1000-page volume.

In by this time and assisted in quelling the prisoners, who seemed to be bent on getting away.

Clark was put in the cage and his injuries attended to.

Jailer Holton had an exciting time of it for a while, and it was lucky that help came in time, or a general delivery might have occurred.

U. S. Court Verdicts.

In the U. S. Court, Judge Evans presiding, John Sebree, of Owen county, was given three years in the pen, in each of two counts, for counterfeiting, but, as the counts were concurrent, he will only have to serve one term of three years.

Tom Rudder, of Owen county, was convicted of counterfeiting, and given five years.

Joe Lowry, of this county, colored, was convicted of breaking into the postoffice at Hatton, and given one year.

MATRIMONIAL.

JACKSON-FRENCH—At the First Presbyterian Church, in this city, on Thursday afternoon, at 6 o'clock, Mr. Craig Jackson and Miss Flossie French were married by Rev. Dr. J. McCusky Blayney.

This was one of the prettiest weddings which has occurred in this city for a long time. The church was beautiful decorated and was filled with the friends of the popular young couple.

Miss French is the daughter of the late Sidney R. French, Esq., a lawyer of this city, and is a beautiful, amiable and popular young lady. She has been the teacher of manual training and physical culture in our city school for some time.

Mr. Jackson is a handsome young business man who numbers his friends by his acquaintances. He is bookkeeper in the Branch Bank of Kentucky.

After a short bridal trip the young folks will go to house-keeping in the residence of Mrs. Garrett, on Second street.

Hearty congratulations are extended.

McMAHAN-ABRAMS—At the residence of the officiating minister, in this city, on Wednesday evening, Mr. Robt. McMahan, of Paris, and Miss Kittie Abrams, of this city, were married by Rev. George Darsie.

OLDHAM-PATTIE—Announcement has been made that Mr. Wm. S. Oldham and Miss Mary Pattie, of Richmond, will be married on Wednesday next, June 21st, at the residence of her aunt, Miss Lucy Pattie, near Farmdale, Rev. Jasper K. Smith, officiating.

Miss Pattie is well known in this city, having often visited her aunts, the Misses Pattie, and her uncles, Messrs. N. F. and Geo. Richardson. She is a splendid musician, a fine vocalist and a pretty girl. Mr. Oldham is said to be a fine young man.

Odd Fellows Memorial.

The Odd Fellows of this city held memorial services in their hall in Odd Fellows Temple, on Tuesday night. There was a nice crowd of ladies and gentlemen present. Rev. Wm. Crowe, Jr., delivered an address, and several others made short talks. Past Grand W. B. Bridgeford presided with his usual grace and dignity. Some vocal music was also enjoyed. Altogether the occasion was a very pleasant one.

Distinguished Missourian Dead.

Hon. Richard P. Bland (known as "Silver Dick"), of Missouri, who was supposed to have the Democratic nomination for President nailed down until Bryan made his "cross of gold" speech, died at his home in Lebanon, Mo., on Thursday from the effects of la grippe. He was an able man and thoroughly imbued with the doctrine that free silver was the remedy for all ills this country is heir to.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Winchester Bar, held at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, June 7, 1899, a committee was appointed to draft the resolutions embodying the sense of the bar at the loss occasioned by the recent death of Maj. L. N. Cardwell, one of its members, and the committee made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

The bar of Winchester is called to mourn the loss of one of its oldest and most highly respected members. Maj. Isaac N. Cardwell, after a long illness, has closed a life of more than usual length, of great usefulness and wholly without reproach. A sound, acute, experienced and vigorous lawyer, always faithful to his client's interests; his courteous manner, absolute fairness and unvarying kindness to his professional associates, won him the respect and esteem of the entire bar, and established a lasting and most enviable character with the people among whom he lived.

Quiet and unassuming as his manners were, his life was, from its beginning, an illustration that the most quiet and unobtrusive of men are nearly always the bravest and most adventurous.

Maj. Cardwell was, in his youth, a member of the patriotic and enterprising band collected under the leadership of Walker, in the earliest of the filibustering expeditions which left our shores to seek adventure and fame in a foreign land. In the Mexican war of 45-7 he was found enrolled under his country's flag, and when hostilities again began in the war between the States, he was among the first to enlist in the army for the maintenance of the Union.

Besides his military service, he twice served as a member of the Kentucky Legislature with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of his constituents. In all the affairs of life he was without reproach, an affectionate and devoted husband and father, a kind friend, a most estimable and public spirited citizen. His loss will be long felt by all who knew him.
